+ Network Liquidators appoints Jabil exec

Network Liquidators, a Tampa-based buyer and seller of pre-owned networking and telecommunications equipment, has appointed Steve Torres as chief financial officer.

Torres brings more than 10 years of strategic and financial leadership experience to Network Liquidators. Prior to joining the company, he was the director of financial reporting for Jabil Inc., where he was responsible for corporate financial reporting and SEC compliance and was involved in several domestic and international acquisitions. Prior to Jabil, he served with Syniverse Technologies and Tech Data.

Torres earned a bachelor's degree from the University of South Florida and is a certified public accountant.
